SUMMARY OF ESSENTIAL ELEMENTS OF CITING/REFEREE'S REPORT/INCIDENT FOOTAGE

The Citing Commissioner Report states:

"Mexico 9 is carrying the ball with Great Britain 6 coming across in cover. Great Britain 6 tackles Mexico 9 making direct contact with her upper right arm and shoulder to the head of Mexico 9. The left arm of Great Britain 6 wraps around and grasps Mexico 9, with the right arm dropping down to also grasp. Mexico 9 is brought to the ground in the tackle and carries on with the play. No penalty is called. The actions of Great Britain 6 in making direct high force contact to the head of Mexico 9 with having a clear line of sight meet the red card threshold. There is no mitigation. As such, Great Britain 6 is cited for contravention of Law 9.13 a player must not tackle dangerously."

The video footage shows Mexico on attack with a tackle/ruck near the touch line. Mexico secures the ball from the ruck and Mexico 9 carries the ball down the blind side near the touch line. The Player comes across toward the touch line in defence to tackle Mexico 9. The Player does attempt to wrap her arms in the tackle. There is significant direct contact with the Player's right shoulder to the right side of the head of Mexico 9 and the 2 players go to ground.

ESSENTIAL ELEMENTS OF OTHER EVIDENCE (e.g. medical reports)

The Mexico team reports no injury to Mexico 9 as a result of the incident.

SUMMARY OF PLAYER'S EVIDENCE

The Player in her evidence confirms the essential details as described in the Citing Commissioner Report. She stated that her intention in coming across in defence to tackle Mexico 9 was to prevent the Victim Player from offloading the ball but, in her words, she got the timing of her tackle wrong and although she did attempt to wrap her arms in the tackle there was high contact to the Victim Player's head with some force.

The Player's coach, Scott Forrest, agreed that there was significant contact to the Victim Player's head but said that this was a not a case of a shoulder charge where the point of the Player's shoulder made contact with the Victim Player's head or that the Player was "driving through" in the tackle. He also noted that the Player had attempted to apologize to the Victim Player after the match but had been unable to do so given time constraints, but that the Player intended on doing so following the hearing.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Player admitted the act of foul play alleged in the Citing Commissioner Report and that her actions reached the red card threshold. In specific reference to World Rugby's Head Contact Process, there was contact between the Player's right shoulder and the head of the Victim Player which was reckless and avoidable in the circumstances. The contact was direct to the Victim Player's head with significant force. The Player had a clear line of sight as she approached the Victim Player and there was no sudden or significant drop in height or movement by the Victim Player or other mitigating factors that apply in this case.

The Citing Commissioner report is upheld.

Summary of reason for number of weeks/matches deducted:

There were significant mitigating factors in this case. This is a young player, with a clear disciplinary record, in her 1st senior tournament. She made an early admission of culpability and presented herself well during the hearing. In the circumstances, a 50% reduction is warranted giving a final sanction of 3 weeks.
